

Make a Voting Plan

1. Check your registration.
2. Decide how you will vote.
3. Find your polling place.
4. Review your ballot.
5. Learn about the candidates and issues.
6. Follow through. Cast your vote.

Your Voter Information Center

RI Secretary of State

This card is funded by the League of Women Voters RI Education Fund

3 Ways to Vote in RI in 2026

General Election – November 3, 2026

- October 4 Voter Registration Deadline
- October 13 Mail Ballot Application Deadline
- October 14 – Nov. 2 Early Voting at Town Halls

Bring a Valid Photo ID

IDs must be valid and not have expired more than six (6) months prior to voting, but do not need your current address.

- RI Driver's License or permit, or U.S. Passport
- U.S. Military ID or government-issued medical card
- ID issued by a U.S. educational institution
- United States or Rhode Island ID card

